Part II Organizational Action Attach additional statements if needed. See back of form for additional questions.

14 Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action ▶ On November 12, 2018 and February 11, 2019, Kimbell Royalty Partners, LP ("Kimbell") made cash distributions to its shareholders. Subsequently, Kimbell made the reasonable determination that such distributions should not constitute a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes but rather should generally constitute non-taxable reductions in the tax basis of each distribution recipient's ownership interest in Kimbell. This form 8937 is being filed to disclose Kimbell's reasonable determination in this regard.

15 Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis ▶ Generally, non-dividend distributions should reduce the tax basis of the shares of stock owned by the recipient(s) of the non-dividend distributions. The reduction of the tax basis of each share of stock owned should be the amount of the non-dividend distributions received. Kimbell has reasonably determined that the entire amount of each distribution should constitute a non-dividend distribution and that no part of the distributions should be treated as a dividend. Accordingly, each distribution recipient should generally treat the full amounts of the distributions made on 11/12/2018 and 2/11/2019 as a reduction to the tax basis of the recipient's ownership in Kimbell.

16 Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates ▶ The reduction to the tax basis of each share of stock owned by a recipient of a non-dividend distribution should generally be the amount of the non-dividend distributions received with respect to each share. Accordingly, recipients of the Kimbell distributions made on 11/12/2018 and 2/11/2019 should generally reduce their tax basis in each share of Kimbell stock (i.e., limited partner unit) owned by $0.45 and $0.40 per share (i.e., per unit), respectively.

19 Provide any other information necessary to implement the adjustment, such as the reportable tax year ▶ The distributions discussed were made on the dates specified in 2018 and 2019, respectively. For calendar year taxpayers, the tax years affected should be the calendar years 2018 and 2019, respectively. For taxpayers reporting on the basis of a tax year other than the calendar year, different tax periods may be impacted.
